

ACHIEVEMENT IN ABILITY

UNITED IN PURPOSE

UNITED ABILITY

Dear Team Captain,

Thank you for gathering orders for United Ability Day shirts to build awareness and raise funds for the critical programs and services offered by United Ability.

Who? UNITED ABILITY (formerly United Cerebral Palsy of Greater Birmingham) has changed lives and brought hope to children and adults with disabilities – as well as their families – for more than 70 years. From exploring innovative rehabilitative therapies to introducing an inclusive educational environment where children with and without disabilities learn side-by-side to being on the forefront of connecting job seekers with disabilities to meaningful employment, United Ability has expanded not only the scope of its programs but also the scope of what is possible for these individuals.

When? United Ability Day is May 17, 2019.

What? Members of the community wear these unique shirts to show unified support for United Ability's efforts to help individuals with disabilities dream new dreams.

How Much? For only $20, your friends, family and colleagues will receive this year's original design soft-style t-shirt.

Why? All gifts will directly fund United Ability's mission of empowering individuals of ALL abilities to lead full and meaningful lives.

How? Display the enclosed eye-catching flyer to easily provide event and order details and collect orders on the enclosed order form. If the number of orders exceeds the number of available rows on the form, please download an additional order form at unitedability.org/abilityday or contact development@unitedability.org.

Submit orders online at unitedability.org/abilityday, through email to development@unitedability.org, or by mail to:

If you have any questions, please contact David Barry at (205) 944-3916 or dbarry@unitedability.org.

Thank YOU for dedicating your time and energy to unite your community for United Ability Day!

What is United Ability Day?

For nearly 3 decades, supporters of United Ability (formerly UCP of Greater Birmingham) have come together on one day – MAY 17 this year - to show their support not only for programs provided by the organization but also for the individuals with disabilities and their families who benefit from these services.

Previously known as Casual Day or casual 4 ABILITY, this unifying event is now called United Ability Day to focus awareness on the life-changing mission that is the basis of United Ability's programs: empowering individuals with disabilities to lead full, meaningful lives.

YOU WILL MAKE A DIFFERENCE SIMPLY BY WEARING A SHIRT!
